

No one should be allowed to use a cell phone on any flight until it is proven beyond a doubt that it does NOT interfere with navigational equipment on board the aircraft. Customer safety is the utmost priority above customer convenience. In addition, until there are plenty of vacant seats available on board so that one could move if he was seated next to an inconsiderate cell phone user, cell phone use should NOT be allowed.